Parental Commitment:

I understand that sacramental preparation is a way of life, not for a single event, and that it is most effective when a sacramental life is modeled within the family. I am willing to make the commitment to participate at Sunday liturgies weekly with my child in addition to bringing him/her to all the required classes. I also understand classes are not a substitution for weekly mass. I am prepared to attend the required parent meetings and agree to prioritize faith formation classes, retreat, and sacramental rehearsals in the life of our family. I realize that failure to support my child’s preparation in the home or excessive absences from classes could result in postponement of a sacrament until a later time. Thank You and God Bless
